

Manaslu Circuit

Introduction

The Manaslu circuit trek is getting more and more popular as a new trekking destination in Nepal. Although it is substantially fewer than trek to other regions like Annapurna, Everest, or Langtang. This trek has a restricted area status which means it requires a special permit to access this route. This trek provides you stunning views of Mount Manaslu and the Ganesh Himal range. Along with the trail, you will encounter many beautiful and interesting facts. One of them is you will encounter an interesting mix of authentic Hindu and Tibetan-style Buddhist villages. The trail follows the river Budhi-Gandaki all the way from its source just below the Larkya Pass. As you go low from subtropical jungle through Himalayan foothills, you will find the incredibly beautiful scenery that all Nepal has to offer. Generally, the trek starts from the Arughat and ends in Beshisahar.
